Victrola is Purchased Encourage the Kiddies

Though still somewhat short of the amount required to purchase the victrola for Sunset School, the committee having the matter in charge decided last week to purchase the machine, and the splendid instrument is now here.

The house of Sherman & Clay has made generous terms for the payment to them of the balance due.

The committee is still in need of $20, and is depending upon those who have not yet contributed to make up this deficiency. The Pine Cone will receive contributions of money and records.

A Boost for Incorporation

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug 15

Mr. W. L. Overstreet,
Editor, Carmel Pine Cone.
My dear sir:

I find your issue of August 9 of particular interest, not only for its highly commendable editorial, but also for the evidence it contains that the citizens of Carmel have awakened to the fact of the necessity of becoming an organized corporate body of residents, whereby they can direct the expenditure of their money for home improvement, instead of paying tribute to outside interests for the mere privilege of local existence.

I encourage me to say that for the first time I am glad to be a property owner in Carmel, and hope that your efforts will culminate in a realizable issue.

The remarkable success attending the private performance of a play and burlesque at the Forest Theatre on last Thursday evening has resulted in the decision to repeat the entire program, at the same place on Saturday evening.

The entire net receipts from the affair are to be donated to the Carmel Public Library, to be used for the children's department.

The Star Theatre Club is an organization of children, whose object is to write, stage and play performances entirely by themselves.

This they have succeeded in doing wonderfully well; how well, indeed, the general public will now have an opportunity to judge. In this work the children should receive every possible encouragement.

Carmel is, and will be for years to come, a community of the drama. We are committed to it. What better then than that we should encourage and develop the rising generations of players?

Those who will take part in Saturday's presentations of
"The Kid" and "The Masqu-(ing of Defects)" are here given:

Grace Wickham, Phyllis F.
Overstreet, Philip and Margaret Williams, Elizabeth and Maryan Hopper, Inez Frates, and Hilda and Helen Hilliard.

Tickets on sale at the Pine Cone office. Adults 25 cents, children 15 cents.

Election Next Week

The primary election takes place next Tuesday. At Salinas County Clerk Joy and his assistants are busy preparing for the event.

The sample ballots are being prepared for mailing, and will be in the hands of voters this week.
The ballots are of various colors, as follows: Republican, cream; Democratic, blue; Progressive, green; Prohibitionists, pink; Socialistic, salmon and non-partisan, white.

The man who belittles the importance of a primary either does not understand it or is indifferent. Its purpose is to have the people select their own candidates, instead of leaving it to the bosses.

Handicap Tournament at the Carmel Golf Links

With the golfing season on in full swing, the management of the scenically beautiful Carmel links has decided to inaugurate a handicap tournament. Several of the players have entered and many more will do so in the next few days.

The qualifying round will be played tomorrow, and from then on much interest will be manifested in each stroke. Prizes have already been selected for presentation to the winners of the competition.

Despite the disadvantages under which the management is laboring, the Carmel Golf Course has proved a success. This has been the best season yet experienced. Players on the course have been drawn from many sections of the country — Pasadena, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, Berkeley, Oakland, New Orleans, New York, Toronto and Calgary.

The golfers are near unanimous in their expression of opinion regarding the beauties of the links.

Descriptions innumerable have been printed as to the picturesque characteristics of the Carmel links, but to really appreciate to the full its wonders one should stand by the hill upon which several of the putting greens are situated.

The enterprise is worthy of more support and publicity of Carmel's permanent residents.

The Real Wreckers

Stand-pat newspapers and spellbinders in various parts of the State who are asserting that Hiram W. Johnson is endeavoring to break up the Republican party in California, are (apparently) losing sight of the fact that they themselves are doing more by their attacks on Gov. Johnson to bring about the party break-up and to place California in the Wilson column in November than any other agency.

Break up the Republican party, indeed! Why so bent are the mass of the Republican voters of California upon the election of Hiram W. Johnson to the Senate of the United States that they would sacrifice Hughes at a word.

If these agencies are so very anxious for the success of the national Republican party and Hughes it is high time for them to give Johnson a square deal.

La Playa Personals

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Richards are now on their way south. So much impressed are they with Carmel that Mrs. Signor is looking up a location for immediate purchase.

Professor Everett of Providence, R. I., is an enthusiast, stating that he has accomplished here more work on his book than in many months elsewhere.

Hayes' Power in Congress Growing

Twenty-five pounds lighter but with his usual friendliness and geniality, Representative E. A. Hayes was a visitor in Carmel last Saturday morning.

Almost worn out by the long session of Congress and the sultry weather of Washington, Mr. Hayes decided a short time ago to avail himself of a brief sojourn in California.

He did not come here to do any strenuous politics, despite the fact that the primary election takes place next Tuesday.

He is visiting the various sections of the Eight California District to get a line on the needs of his constituents and to keep in close touch with conditions. He is home to recover his health. As he told the editor of the Pine Cone, "When the voters of my district send me back to Washington, I want to go back a well man."

Some years ago, when Carmel was without a postoffice, and received its mail from Monterey only it was through the efforts of Hayes and Needham that an independent postoffice was established here.

Mr. Hayes is now completing his sixth term in Congress, and in this twelve years he has become a power in the lower house. By rule of seniority, no less than by ability, he is placed high in the important committees.

Mr. Hayes is today one of the oldest members in point of service in the House of Representatives, and with the new administration practically certain to be Republican, both Mr. Hayes and his friends feel that he should be returned for the seventh time.

A large 15-pound red beet is on exhibition at the Pine Cone office. It was raised in Carmel by J. B. Sylvester.

Annual Meeting of the Forest Theatre Society

Last Wednesday evening, at the studio of M. DeNeale Morgan, the annual meeting of the Forest Theatre was held.

Officers for 1916-17 were elected as follows: President and Treasurer, William T. Kibbler; Vice-President, Perry Newberry; Secretary, J. M. Culbertson.

Members of the Council for the ensuing year are: Mrs. M. E. Hand, Miss M. DeNeale Morgan, Mrs. Frances C. Pudan, Mrs. M. H. Brenner, Miss Janet Prentiss, Miss Alice MacDougal, Mrs. A. W. Scott, Mrs. Grace MacGowan Cooke, J. F. Devendorf, H. L. Warren, T. B. Reardon, and A. Vachell.

The thanks of the society were tendered to all the members of the casts of the different plays, especially to Mr. Ludovic Bremner, "The Piper," and to Miss Katharine Cooke, who at short notice so ably played the part of Veronika, so well done by Miss Alice MacDougal in the earlier productions of "The Piper."

The reading of the Treasurer's statement, which showed a substantial balance, was a source of much satisfaction to the members.

Arthur Cyril left on a business and pleasure trip on Sunday. He will return here for "onemorelook"—no, week, and the he goes East.

Harry Decker, in charge of Leidig Bros.' hardware department, left for the city on Friday. In a short time he will return with his bride, who was Miss Mildred A. Munter. They will make their home in the Cole cottage.

Miss Grace Hamilton and Miss Charlotte Kett, who have been here for two months, in the Lyons cottage, have left for their homes, the former in Sacramento and the latter in Berkeley.

Miss A. D. Gray, with her brother James H. Gray will leave Los Altos shortly for a brief vacation in Humboldt county.

left on Thursday last for a fortnight's visit in San Francisco.

"Honey" Gordon Davis, who is a junior at Stanford, has departed to be on hand for registration day. While here, in addition to his work at the Forest Theatre, he wrote several vaudeville sketches.

Miss Freda Luederman of Los Gatos is here pursuing her work of making sketches of American birds for a textbook.

Garwood Simons, a nephew of Benj. Lichtenstein, who leaves shortly for the East to join the Damroch company, was a Carmel visitor during the week.

Donald Hafe left for the city on Sunday. He may be away for some time.

Miss Margaret Williamson, a former Carmel school teacher, is here for a brief visit.

District Attorney Walter E. Norris was here from Salinas last Saturday afternoon.

The wife of Judge G. F. Buck, well acquainted here, is a visitor from Stockton.

Ludovic Bremner left here on Monday for San Francisco. A sketch on the Orpheum circuit is in prospect, after which a trip East is contemplated.

Mrs. Dorothy and Miss Lily Hayes, relatives of Miss E. A. McLean, are occupying the Chandler cottage. They are from Oakland.

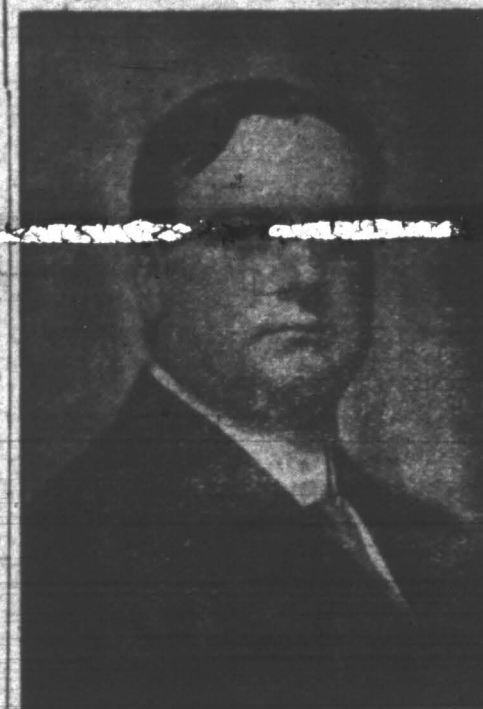

Mike deYoung took Governor Hughes to the roof of the Chronicle building. Perhaps to dope out a plan to defeat Hiram W. Johnson, the choice of the people for United States Senator.

The Rentdorff family has returned to Palo Alto. They may be here during the Christmas holidays.

Miss Alys Miller, who assisted in some of the summer plays while here, returned to her home in the city last week.

Earl Olds, who for several months has been driving for C. O. Goold, has quit his job. He is visiting his folks somewhere in northern California.

Mrs. Cather, a writer, who contributes frequently to St. Nicholas, was a guest of the Misses Eunice and Adaline Gray recently.

We are glad to see the Republicans decide on one man for United States Senator as a candidate at the primaries. That was the big mistake in the gubernatorial race last time. Three Republican candidates cross firing in the primaries, while the candidate from the the Progressives stepped in and took the nomination. With Republican strength centered on one man the grand old party has opportunity to make its vote count.—Santa Clara Journal.

Right you are, sister. The Republicans can make no mistake in electing Governor Johnson to the U. S. Senate.—Pacific Grove Review.

Not only the Republicans, but all other groups who know ability and decency when they see it.
